

Making educational and training films with digital technology

- Do you want to create simple DVDs and computer based movies for your class?
- You don't need expensive equipment
- You can start making educational movies by using photos, text slides and web based educational movie clips!
- Add your own narration and music
- You don't even need a video camera!

One day computer based training courses

Central London

- April 27th, 2007
- June 8th, 2007

@ IT suite near London Bridge Station

Prices from £139 per person

Contact us for delivery at your school of college, or at independent venues (group discounts apply)

www.whb.co.uk

training@whb.co.uk

White Horse uses experienced and trained workshop leaders

Take away copy of the published book Digital Educational Movies For Beginners with any course booking Limited spaces available – book early!

For costs and quotations contact us at:

training@whb.co.uk

07939 223932

This course is designed to help people working on PCs using a Windows XP ® operating environment Using Windows ® Movie Maker

- Improve your classroom lessons, training and learning activities

- Deliver the movie to your student's mobile phones!

Participants need to have previous experience of the basic use of computers, ideally basic knowledge of word processing, ® PowerPoint and web searching etc

You don't need to have any previous experience of using Microsoft ® Movie Maker or of editing digital movies

What the Course can include

- Ideas on how to plan and produce a short educational video
- Basic instruction in the use of Windows ® Movie Maker (Included with Windows ® XP)
- How to create slide and photo based educational movies.
- How to import quality video archive material into your educational movies
- How to import PowerPoint ® slides, tables and charts into a movie
- Copyright considerations
- How to produce your finished movie in different formats, DVD, website, and portable media

For booking or more information

White Horse Educational Services
www.whb.co.uk

Contact us at:
training@whb.co.uk
www.whb.co.uk
07939 223932